3/14/67

Dear Mr. Shackelford,

As you intended, your note is provocative and I should like to have what youmdescribe as "some very interesting news that may be of interest to"me.

However, I am far behind dealine on my writing and would appreciate it very much if you could give me an ixdea of what it is about?

Could you please phone me, or can you note the essence of it and meil it to me? I've slowed down to a 17-hour day and thus get farthur behind daily. Possibly thereafter we could meet. I do get to Washington once in a while.

Im hope you can. Deadlines are the horror or writers, and I'm on the wrong side of three.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg